

THREE HUNDRED LEAF MEN HERE

Two Days' Institute And Convention Begins
In Assembly Hall This Morning.

MADE WELCOME BY THE MAYOR

Prof. A. R. Whitson Gave A Very Illuminating Address
On Soil Fertility—Exhibits Of Good And Bad Leaf Shown.

Despite inclement weather, the prevailing dullness in the market, and the fact that many who would otherwise be present are engaged in stripping just at this time, there was an attendance of nearly 300 at Assembly hall when the first day's joint session of the Wisconsin Farmers' Institute and the Wisconsin Tobacco Growers & Dealers' association was called to order at Assembly hall this morning. Under a big 12 foot placard which announced: "TOBACCO WHICH MAIN-TAINS THE SUPREMACY FOR WISCONSIN AND WHICH SELLS FOR PROFITABLE PRICES," there was exhibited on the west wall a series of fine samples of the cured leaf. Nearby was another sign which bore the reproachful warning: "TOBACCO WHICH IMPAIRS OUR REPUTATION, DEMORALIZES OUR MARKETS, AND HANKRUMPS OUR GROWER AND DEALER." Under this were hung specimens of chilled, green, trashy, and frozen stuff; mouldy high case leaf after it has sweat; and a crude bunch or two of fillers which had been rolled up with straw.

"That sample of high case leaf shows what happens to wet tobacco," remarked A. L. Fisher, secretary of the association. "It won't stand more than 15 per cent and go through the sweat."

"How does it happen to get in that wet condition?" asked a tenderfoot bystander.

"Oh, in various ways. Sometimes they sprinkle snow or water on it to increase the weight."

George Wiley is Presiding. Senator George Wiley of Morrisonville, as presiding officer, formally opened the meeting. Mayor Stewart H. Hodges was the first speaker and welcomed the hearers to Janesville, "one of the best and most progressive cities of Southern Wisconsin." He called attention to the fact that local warehouses, filled with tobacco, evidence the city's strong leaning toward agricultural pursuits and point to its largest factory, engaged in the manufacture of agricultural implements, alone, as an evidence that the tobacco life is the one that most strongly appeals to the people of this community.

The nation, he said, had nothing to fear from panics so long as the soil continues to give forth its increase, and the farmer—the show and back bone of our country—continues his toil. Both as a dealer and grower he had been a co-worker with his hearers for many years and he was present to learn something. He praised the officers for their efforts in arranging such profitable meetings and after tendering the keys of the city, concluded his welcome with the following verse:

"There's comfort in each puff of smoke,
Dedance to ill-fortune's stroke
And happiness forever,
There grows a volume full of thought
And humor, then the book you bought
Holds nothing half so clever."

Distribution of Seed. Hon. John M. Bates of Brighton, president of the Association, who was to deliver the response—"Past, Present, and Future of Wisconsin Tobacco"—was ill this morning and the address was postponed until afternoon. In his place, A. R. Whitson of Madison, professor of soils at the Wisconsin College of Agriculture, spoke on "Crop Rotation and Soil Fertility on a Tobacco Farm." E. P. Sandston, professor of horticulture in the same institution, also made some interesting contributions to the subject of tobacco culture and announced that he had on hand for distribution a limited supply of Connecticut Havana tobacco seed, Wisconsin grown under the direction of the Wisconsin Agricultural experiment station. He called attention to the fact that the effort was to improve the strain rather than provide free seeds, and advised those with whom the leaf found favor to save the seed for themselves.

"Soil Fertility." Prof. Whitson in his discussion of "Crop Rotation and Soil Fertility" said that no people of any considerable density had ever been maintained more than 300 years consecutively on the proceeds of the soil, and that the question of soil fertility was one that must be solved by the future. After emphasizing the fact that there must be to the soil two or three times the amount of any given element actually used by the plants, and that from three to five times the quantity of these elements is unavoidably wasted by denitrification when land is in a high state of fertility, he brought out the following points:

Manure, though the best fertilizer for tobacco, does not increase the humus of the soil. The humus and water-holding capacity comes from the slow decomposition of roots, and is best obtained by growing clover or similar crops. The chief value of manure comes from its processes of rapid decomposition. It provides plenty of potash, but is deficient in phosphoric acid, which is, however, only taken in small amounts by tobacco. Rotation of crops is highly advisable. After a field has been used three or four years for tobacco it should be turned over to corn or sugar beets, then barley, or some other grain, and then clover.

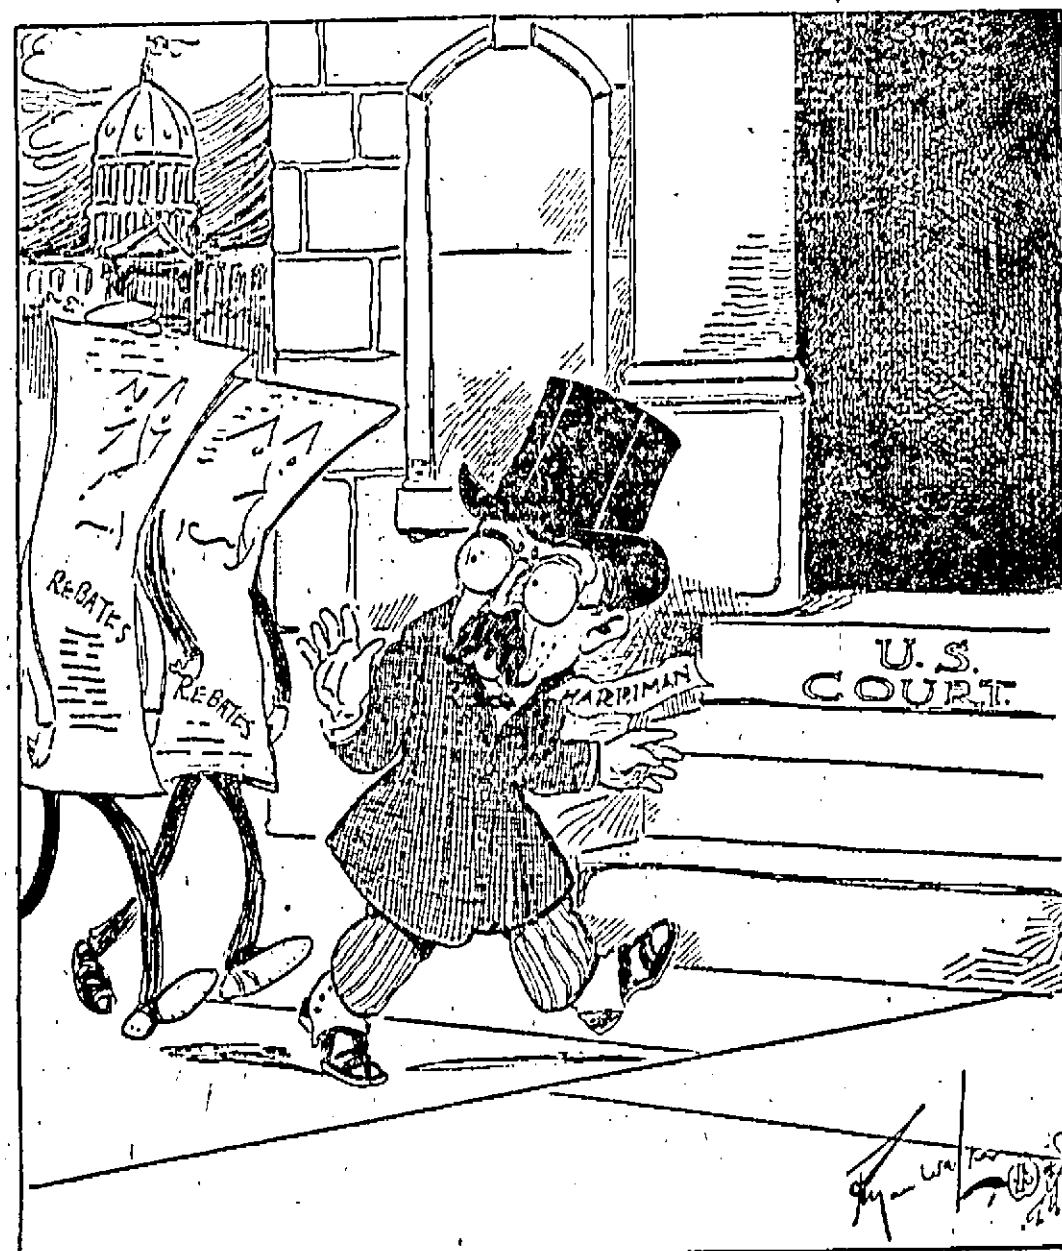

Comparisons of soil from fields in Wisconsin which had been cultivated fifty-two years and virgin soil adjacent had shown that in that brief period of time one-third of the phosphoric acid element had been exhausted. This would give the soil much less than 100 years more of productivity. It allowed to continue. Nitrogen and other elements can be gathered from the air, but the principal way to get the phosphoric acid in appreciable quantities is from the ground phosphate rocks found in Tennessee. In buying these fertilizers it was advisable to get the pure elements so as to avoid chlorine and other harmful chemicals.

Manure loses one-third of its value if allowed to lie in the barnyard a season. It should be spread as a top dressing on the tobacco field in winter, the field having been disked (if now land) and then ploughed the following spring. It should be disked in the spring again. If ploughed, care should be taken not to plough too deep.

Barns This Afternoon. President John M. Bates spoke this afternoon, and George Moore of Cambridge, Wis., gave a very interesting contribution on the subject of "The Proper Way to Prepare Tobacco for the Market." Thomas S. Welsh led the discussion and a number participated.

TRAINS NOW PASS UNDER THE HUDSON

Steel Tube Connecting New Jersey and Manhattan Island Opened With Ceremonies.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, Feb. 25.—With interesting ceremonies and prominent participants, accompanied by the playing of bands and the cheering of thousands, the great steel tube under the Hudson river, connecting New Jersey and Manhattan Island, was formally opened to traffic today. President Roosevelt, in the executive mansion at Washington, pressed a button that flashed the signal for the first car to start through the tunnel. On board the first train were Governor Hughes of New York, Governor Fort of New Jersey, the mayors of New York City, Hoboken and Jersey City, and the officials of the construction and rapid transit companies that have made the great undertaking an accomplished fact after a quarter of a century had elapsed since the project was first conceived.

The first train covered the distance of three and a quarter miles in less than fifteen minutes. Arriving at the Nineteenth street terminal of the tunnel system the distinguished participants in the dedication ceremonies repaired to Sherry's, where an elaborate banquet was spread in further celebration of the important event.

The opening of this tunnel, known as the south tube of the North river tunnel system, marks the completion of the first section of the great underground railroad system that is to connect New York City with the New Jersey side of the river, and which will do away with the slow ferry boats that for years have carried the tens of thousands of passengers that cross the North river daily.

The great terminals at Hoboken, Jersey City and Newark on the Jersey side will be transfer points for passengers from the various railroad and trolley lines that make a network spreading over the entire northern part of New Jersey. When all sections of the new underground system, with its six miles of tunnels, are in operation, these points will have direct rapid transit communication with the heart of New York city. The cost of the enterprise is figured at nearly $60,000,000.

The section opened for traffic today extends from Hoboken under the river to the foot of Morton street, and thence up the west side of New York to Nineteenth street. Within a few months the section on Thirty-third street and Sixth avenue will be in operation. At that point an immense terminal station will be erected and will, in all probability, have an underground connection with the Pennsylvania station, as well as with the present subway system running the full length of Manhattan Island. For the present, eight cars will be run under the river at intervals of every five minutes. The cars are expected to make the trip in twelve minutes.

CLINTON.

Clinton, Feb. 24.—Will Hughes and Belle Van Velsor, now Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, have the hearty congratulations of their very many Clinton friends. Both are young people, well and favorably known here, and it is hoped their future may be prosperous and happy.

Mrs. O. L. Woodward visited in De-lia this day last week.

Mrs. Nellie Crandall and daughter Rhoda were here on Monday but returned to their home in Cambridge, Ill. the following day, so that Miss Crandall could resume her teaching.

It. W. Cheever says that it seemed queer to him, on leaving here last Monday, to see the ice all out of Rock Island and find the old Mississippi all frozen over at Clinton, Iowa, and people cutting their ice at Savanna. The storm down here on Tuesday was worse than here.

Mrs. Allen Gilbert of Rockford, Ill., passed through here on Thursday, being on her way to Watford to attend the funeral of her mother.

Trains have nearly all been badly delayed during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barnes, since the 20th, have been rejoicing over the safe arrival at their home of a fine daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leonard, Jr., are now nicely settled on the farm just north of town.

His many friends here are pleased to know that Walter R. Homan, a Clinton boy, is so rapidly climbing the ladder of fame, being now well up in Uncle Sam's service in the inspectors' department of the post office service. His first start was from here as a postal clerk.

The past few days Mrs. Cheever has been spending in Milwaukee preparing for the spring millinery trade.

Speaking about T. S. Nolan's candidacy, he had quite a few friends here two years ago, if we remember rightly, and we do not know of any of those being lost, strayed or stolen, but do know of a lot of others who now say he can have their support.

The Citizens' lecture course this winter has been one of the best ever given in Clinton and the entertainment by Mr. ones given on Wednesday evening was one which will surely be long remembered with pleasure by all who had the pleasure of hearing it. There should be at least ten more season tickets than this year and then at least one other fine concert could be added in which case none could help but be delighted with the list during the coming season.

C. S. Thomas writes from Los Angeles that he and his wife, Mrs. Shepard, and Mrs. Wymann, attended the Wisconsin day picnic at Long Beach, Cal., on Feb. 12th and enjoyed it very much. They also saw Mr. De Long and Frank Wells as well as Mrs. Homan there, making seven in the bunch from this town. He says they are all able to eat three square meals a day.

Mrs. E. H. Tubbs has been laid up for several days with a sore throat.

Miss Marcella Wood has lately been on the sick list.

A. E. Pawley and mother have both been quite poorly for several days.

The Washington supper at the Congregational church on Friday evening was a very fine and well patronized affair.

H. A. and Mrs. Anderson have both been quite poorly of late.

Dr. Griswold was not as well last week.

J. P. Chamberlain is said to be very sick.

It is reported that "Pick" Dugan recently died in York state where he had been living for the past few years.

The Citizens' lecture course a little more than paid expenses.

The school exercises on Friday afternoon were exceptionally good and were enjoyed by a number of visitors.

Mrs. Charles Wood, a daughter of the late A. W. Shattuck, was born here fifty years ago Monday and has always made this her home where she married and has raised a family of five children. For some time her health had not been the best, but none had any idea that when taken worse last week on Friday she would have passed away. Besides her children she leaves a husband, an aged mother, and numerous other relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

For years she had been a member of the Baptist church at which her funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. P. Conkley officiating. She was also a member of the Myrtle Workers, a number of whom were present at the funeral.

THE RURAL ROADS

It will soon be time to consider what improvements are to be made in Rock county during the coming year, as regards roads. The last session of the county board conferred with the state laws and named a supervisor of roads in the person of Mr. Skaylon. They also discussed the purchase of steam rollers; in fact, ordered a committee of five to purchase two. In this they perhaps stopped over the legal rights. The life of this board ends at the April election and the appointment of a standing committee of five to report at the May meeting was stretching the legal rights of the retiring board. This was the view of J. L. Bear, the supervisor from the Third Ward of Janesville, who voted against this measure, although he voted for all others of similar nature and improvement of the roads. Legal authorities agree with Mr. Bear in his contention that the old board did not have the right to appoint a standing committee and perhaps this may lead to complications that will delay the actual work of building the new roads. Work, however, with an idea of showing the necessity of having good roads throughout the county can not be begun too early as the townships must take the first steps before any roads can be built.

STILL TIME

There is still time for many candidates for city offices to come to the front. Thus far the contests have been mild, but from now on it is to be expected the campaigning will be fast and furious. Good men who seek office are welcome to the field. Janesville needs the best that it can produce—good aldermen, good supervisors and a good city attorney and justice and city treasurer. No Mayor is to be chosen this year, but care should be taken in the selection of the other officials. The Gazette stands for good government, for law and order and enforcement of the existing laws regardless of whom they affect. No favorites, no political pulls, should save the guilty from punishment when it is deserved; a square deal to every one and the preservation of the peace and upholding the laws as found in the statute and city charter requirements.

Betrothed in Infancy.

In some parts of west Africa the girls have long engagements. On the day of their birth they are betrothed to a baby boy a trifle older than themselves, and at the age of 20 they are married. The girls know no other way of getting a husband and so they are quite happy and satisfied. As wives they are patterns of obedience, and the marriages usually turn out successful.

CALLED CALENDAR AT NINE TODAY

LAWYERS GATHERED AT THE COURT HOUSE THIS MORNING.

MANY CASES FOR TRIAL

Seventy-four Cases on the Calendar and Most of Them Ready For Trial.

At nine o'clock this morning Judge Grinn called the calendar for the February term of the circuit court of this county. Of the forty-three cases involving questions of fact for the jury, thirty-four were ready for trial and will be taken up in order beginning with the case of the City of Janesville vs. John Doe et al, which is a suit for city taxes and is the first jury case on the calendar. The case of Flint vs. Iman was dismissed on stipulation, the case of Hahn vs. The City of Janesville has been closed and the second case of Flint vs. W. Cooley and Mrs. W. Cooley has also been dismissed by consent. In the case of Moellenbach vs. Mayhew, Lowell and Beers vs. J. and T. Morrissey, and Harrington vs. the Rock County Sugar Co. the jury was sworn. The case of H. M. Palmer, Adm., vs. O'Hourke was continued. Several other cases were passed to the foot of the calendar on the possibility of their being settled or continued and the balance were ready for trial beginning on March 24. Two new cases of Dent and Field vs. Gillman and Huggard vs. City of Janesville were also placed upon the calendar.

Of the thirty cases involving issues of fact for the court to pass upon twenty-six were ready for trial, five of them being default actions. Four cases were passed to the foot of the calendar on the probability of their being settled out of court and dismissed. The judge then proceeded with the trial of the case of Hamman & Lindquist vs. the City of Janesville.

Criminal Cases

The only criminal case on the calendar was that of the State of Wisconsin vs. J. W. Burger for the violation of the obscenity law. This case was also ready for trial and will be taken up with the other jury cases.

New Citizens

Five new citizens received their second papers yesterday. Four of them gave Germany as their birthplace and one of them came from England. They are Ferdinand Kepp, William Strickard and William Schrub of Edgerton, John Evans of Evansville, Herman Habits had also filed his papers, but out of his witness had not yet taken out his first papers himself and could not be a witness. He was, therefore, forced to wait until he could get another witness and will be naturalized at the May term.

Divorces Granted

Judge Grinn yesterday granted divorces to George Sherman from Rose Sherman, and to Dortha L. Toplin from Leonard Toplin.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

The evening was spent in playing various games and the music was furnished by Miss Allen Strampe and Miss Georgia Collins. Those present were Olga Zorbell, Ruth Hemingway, Georgia Collins, Clara McKoon, Rachel Gregory, Allen Strampe, Isabelle Murphy, Nellie Kelly, Frank Hennessey, John Riley, Frank Mohr, George Hegger, Benjamin Fullman, Frank Ward, Thomas Farrell, Charles Elmer, Gertrude McGee.

Checking Scales: Clerks of the Tax Commission are at work in the offices of the registers of deeds throughout the state checking up the sales made during the past year from September of 1906 to September of 1907. This is done in order to have a basis to work on in fixing the amount of the taxes. One of the clerks has been at work in Register of Deeds Weirick's office since last Friday.

Had Narrow Escape: William Polson, who works for Dr. Little, had a narrow escape from a serious injury this noon when he was struck by a runaway driven by F. H. Blodgett. The automobile was running very slowly, almost at a crawl, when it crossed the street and becoming confused he stepped directly in front of the machine which ran completely over him with the front wheels. He was picked up and carried into the Myers hotel but examination showed that he was not injured other than a few bruises.

Economic Club: The Women's Club of Household Economies will hold its annual meeting at Afton, Thursday, Feb. 27. Members will leave over the C. & N. W. at 9:10 a. m. The business meeting will be held at 10 o'clock.

Missionary Praise Service: A foreign missionary praise service will be held at the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening at 7:30. The subject will be "China" and there will be 37 stereopticon views. Supper will be served to all members of the Women's Missionary Society at six o'clock.

Discover Rich Deposit: Word has been received from Walter Myers, a son of Mrs. Julia Myers of this city, that he has discovered a rich deposit of gold in Beach Sands on Wreck Bay, near Sidney, British Columbia. Mr. Myers has been mining throughout the west for thirty years past and his many friends here are glad to learn of his good fortune.

Sale is Large: The sale of seats for Mrs. Blake has proved to be exceptionally large and it is thought probable the standing-room-only sign will be in use when the show begins.

Private Exchange Now in Operation

Wisconsin Telephone Company installs Private Switchboard in Myers Hotel.

Guests of the Myers hotel in the future can remain in their rooms and talk with friends about the city and even hold animated conversations with residents of Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, New York, in fact, anywhere the Bell telephone system extends. Forty rooms are connected with the switchboard in the hotel office and Manager William Squires and Assistant Manager William McNeil are taking turns at being "Hello Girls".

The system is most complete and will be of great convenience both to the hotel management and also to the general traveling public. It is the first private branch exchange in the city.

IMPORTANT CASE UP IN CIRCUIT COURT

Motion to Dismiss Appeal in Case of Hamman and Lindquist vs. City.

Argued.

Beginning at ten thirty this morning Judge Grinn listened to the arguments of the attorneys in the case of Hamman and Lindquist vs. the City of Janesville until two thirty this afternoon. The question was whether or not the appeal of the plaintiffs was properly taken from the decision of the common council upon their claim of $15,000 for extras in putting in the sewerage system in the city. The wording of the title of the plaintiffs was slightly changed in the appeal to the court from that in the claim made to the council and the question was raised as to whether or not this change was allowable. City Attorney Maxfield with W. G. Wheeler as counsel appeared for the city, and M. O. Mount and Wm. Smith made the argument for the plaintiffs.

POULTRY SHOW WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Has Given Chicken-Raising a Decided Impetus—Two Hundred and Sixty-five Birds Shown.

Milton, Feb. 25.—The Milton poultry show proved to be greater success than its promoters anticipated. Two hundred and sixty-five birds competed. Straw, baled—$4.75 per ton, than an average. HIGHEST PRAISE.
Some Janesville Citizens Grow Enthusiastic on the Subject.

The praise of the public is merit's just reward. Nothing in modern times has received the praise accorded "The Little Conqueror."

Of some kinds of praise we are skeptical. We doubt the praise of strangers. The highest praise for Janesville people is hearty expression from Janesville people.

Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed in Janesville.

No better proof of merit can be had. Here's a case of it. We have plenty more like it.

Mrs. R. F. Jones, of 167 Western Ave., Janesville, Wis., says:

"I do not free from attacks of backache for a single day during several years past. I used no many remedies without getting any relief that I came to the conclusion that nothing would help me and stopped trying. I went about all bent over, could not straighten up at all and had a dull pain across the loins and a feeling of weakness that made it hard for me even to rise from a chair. At night I would awaken with the feeling that a great weight was breaking my back, and anyone who has suffered from kidney trouble will know what torture I endured. Finally I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and wondered if there was really any use of trying another remedy, but seeing them recommended by people in Janesville I procured a box at the People's Drug Co. and began using them. Gradually I regained strength and the pains and aches finally disappeared. Since I have discontinued their use I have not had an attack of backache nor any symptom of kidney trouble, and I believe Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of all the praise that I can give them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

J. M. Giordani Suffers as a Result of Revolutionary Plans.

New York, Feb. 25.—Two indictments were handed down Monday by the federal grand jury against Joseph M. Giordani, who was recently arrested here for alleged counterfeiting of the paper money of Hayti. One indictment charges counterfeiting; the other charges the secret purchase of munitions of war. Giordani, it is charged, was the representative in this country of the revolutionary party headed by Gen. Frimlin, which was recently defeated while trying to seize the reins of government in Hayti. The money in question was made by a local bank note company and in no way resembled the currency now in use in Hayti.

MRS. MARY DAVIS HAS PASSED AWAY

Woman, Who Has Lived in Rock County Over Fifty Years, Died at Her Home Friday.

Evansville, Feb. 24.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Davis who passed away Friday morning at her home about four miles east of town was held from her residence yesterday afternoon at two o'clock and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends. The service was conducted by the Rev. Wilson of Superior who by one time was rector of the Episcopal church of this city. Mrs. V. A. Axtell, Miss Lillian Gibson and R. D. Hartley rendered the song service. Mrs. Davis was born on the Atlantic Ocean eighty-six years ago. She had been in ill health for about four weeks but suffered from no special form of disease, her death being due to advanced age. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. George York of Delavan, besides a number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. While her childhood days were spent in the eastern states she has been a resident of Rock county for over fifty years. She was of a gentle and sunny disposition and her main object through a long and active life has been to lead happiness to others and there are many who will cherish her memory because of her deeds of kindness and love. The pallbearers were Frank Griffith, Guy Barnard, Dan Rogers, M. Holden, S. Gammon, and John Collins who tenderly laid the remains to rest in the cemetery of the town of Porter.

The opera house was filled to its utmost capacity last Friday evening and the large audience was delightfully entertained by the various grades of the public school. The program was one of the most interesting ever given by the school and the little folks covered themselves with glory and many of the small amateur actors displayed unusual talent and all showed careful training. Two much cannot be said in praise of the teachers whose hard work and drilling produced such pleasurable results. The first number was a beautifully rendered violin solo by Lyle Wright. This was followed by "Little Women of the Revolution," a Georgia Washington drill by the first grade and the little folks looked very quaint and old-fashioned in their costumes which were in keeping with that time. Little Antonette Wolf was grand and handled the spinning wheel quite as deftly as did the grandmas of Revolutionary days. "Tom Thumb's Wedding" was reproduced by the second grade. Hazel Van Wormer was the tiny bride and was a trained gown of white chiffon and lace and a full length bridal veil. Richard Evans was the groom and appeared in a full evening dress suit. Amanda Carlson was maid of honor and Charlotte Doolittle, Elvia Scheibel, Doris Copeland and Dorothy Axtell were the bridesmaids and all were gowned in elaborate pink dresses also having long trains. Douglas Lawson acted as best man. Honorable Hubbard was officiating clergyman, his robe denoting that he was of the Episcopal faith. He spoke with great solemnity the words that made the audience shiver with laughter. Laurinda Scheibel was ring bearer. The flower girls were Charlotte Colony and Roba Angel. Ralph Pierce, Bruce Hubbard and Orville Devlin were ushers. The ushers were Oliver Colony, Arleyn Perkins and Donald Ellis. The remainder of the grade appeared as relatives and guests and altogether the children made a very pretty picture in their dainty gowns made after the latest design for grown-up people. A dialogue by the eighth grade called "The Old and the New" was productive of much merriment and the actors drew a laughable comparison of the new and old way of viewing things in general. The parts were taken by Helen Oberg, Gladys Barber, Shirley Myers, Olive Chapin and Frank Hubbard. An operetta "Little Red Riding Hood" was given by the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades and those taking part did themselves great credit. The stage scene was realistic and the acting very good. Lillian Horon was Red Riding Hood, Beth Baker mother, Lois Wright wolf, Carol Briggs and others woodmen and Lester Bowker. Robbin. The object of the entertainment was to procure funds with which to purchase pictures and other useful and ornamental articles for the rooms. The receipts of the evening were about one hundred dollars.

Miss Rita Hubbard entertained a number of friends at dinner yesterday in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent McMillan of Deloit, C. W. Hubbard of Milwaukee was also one of the guests.

Mrs. R. D. Hartley is spending several days in Rockford as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bert Hargis.

In addition to the above program Mrs. Vic Campbell will give an address on "Temperance Training for Children."

Mrs. Ed. Winters who has been quite ill for the past two weeks was able to sit up a short time yesterday.

A large number of relatives and friends of the Porter family went to Cooksville this afternoon to be present at the funeral of Paul Porter.

Ervin Winters was here from Deloit to spend Saturday and Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leola Demelson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller in Stoughton.

Little Hazel, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Groutman who has been critically ill for several days is said to be gaining slowly.

Mrs. Henry Marks of Madison spent Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Emerton.

The basketball teams of the Evansville high school won both games in Albany Saturday evening. The games were very exciting and the flashes close. The girls' score was 10 to 9 and the boys' 10 to 15. They were accompanied by a number of their friends and all had a good time.

Carl Monahan of Madison spent Sunday in Evansville.

Mrs. Charles Stone and children visited her sister, Mrs. Mamie Danks, in Stoughton over Sunday.

TREASURY CALLS FOR $35,000,000

PROSPERITY ECHOED IN DEMAND BY CORTELYOU.

Government Cash to Be Withdrawn in Large Quantity by Secretary—Convenience Is One Stipulation.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The secretary of the treasury Monday announced a call upon national banks.

He asked approximately 25 per cent. of the public funds now held in inactive depositaries having on deposit such funds in the sum of $100,000 or more, and 25 per cent. of the public funds now held by active depositaries where the deposit is $100,000 of such funds, or in excess thereof, and where such withdrawal can be made without inconvenience to the treasury department in the transaction of public business.

Asks Return of $35,000,000.

Under the call, approximately $35,000,000 will be returned to the treasury.

Payments under this call will be made as follows: Ten per cent. of the amount called on or before March 9 and the remaining 15 per cent. on or before March 23.

Secretary Cortelyou stated that advice from all portions of the country are to the effect that this proportion of the government funds now on deposit with these national banks can be withdrawn without detriment to financial conditions in any section.

To Transfer Jap Balances.

Berlin, Feb. 25.—The tightening of financial conditions in Japan is regarded by banks here as likely to result in the transfer from London to Tokio of a large portion of Japan's balances and somewhat to disturb European money markets. Japan's balances in London are estimated as between $50,000,000 and $75,000,000. At the Japanese embassy here the news of panicky conditions at Osaka, Kyoto and Kobe is discredited, but private advices to German firms trading in the far east confirm the news of the scarcity of money. The recent stringency in the United States is believed to be affecting Japan, especially as Japanese exports to the United States have fallen off to a considerable extent. The prolonged doubts concerning Japan's intentions toward the United States on the emigration question have tended to make European bankers with Japanese connections withdraw their loans and conduct their business with unusual caution.

Fire at Boyne, Mich.

Boyer City, Mich., Feb. 25.—The drygoods store of Lee Edelstein in the bank block was badly damaged by fire Monday night. The furniture store of W. H. Quick, the law offices of Noel & Converse and the First National bank were less seriously damaged. The aggregate losses reached $100,000.

Packers Plead Not Guilty.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 25.—In the district court here Monday attorneys for Swift & Co. pleaded not guilty to a charge of violating the Nebraska pure food law and a jury was selected to try the case. The packing company is accused of failure to brand the net weight on meat packages.

Shoots Sister and Self.

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 25.—Louis Hatcher, aged 45, killed his sister, Mrs. Jerome Lewis, aged 55, at their home in Medina Monday and then inflicted probably fatal wounds to himself. It is the second double tragedy that has occurred in this family within six months.

Graft Cases Go Over.

San Francisco, Feb. 25.—With the exception of the light trust bribery cases, the graft cases before Superior Judge Frank H. Dunn Monday morning went over for two weeks.

No matter how good the quality of your goods may be the people will never know it unless you tell them.

Find Wounds 'n' Back.

Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 25.—Two bullet wounds in the back of the body of George A. Carkins, which was examined Monday by county officials following the story told by Mrs. Paul L. Roy, an opera singer, that Carkins was murdered, were disclosed by an informal examination of the body Monday night. Carkins was supposed to have committed suicide.

Taken from Receiver's Hands.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 25.—Judge Lansing in the United States circuit court Monday made an order for the receivers of the Westinghouse Lamp Company to turn back the business to the company. The receivers have operated the plant at a profit. Those with claims under $250 are to be paid at once, others will be paid on January 1 next.

Mrs. Noyes' Condition Critical.

Pasadena, Cal., Feb. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Noyes and Mrs. George W. Boyd remain at the bedside of Mrs. Crosby, Noyes, who is still prostrated over her husband's death.

Household Philosophy.

A new broom always sweeps clean, but a new cook doesn't always make good biscuits.

One of the strongest arguments in favor of advertising is that it creates demand. If you would succeed in any business you must create a demand for the goods you handle.

ITALIAN-SENATE CONVICTS NAZI OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

Former Head of Public Instruction Department Sent to Jail for Alleged Misdeeds.

Rome, Feb. 25.—The senate sitting as a high court, after ten hours of deliberation, Monday convicted Nazio Nuzzi, former minister of public instruction, of embezzlement from the state treasury.

It sentenced him to 11 months and 20 days' imprisonment and debarred him from holding public office for four years and two months.

The punishment of Nazi is not so severe as might appear, for the court found extenuating circumstances and permitted the imprisonment of the accused had already undergone to be subtracted from the sentence. This leaves only a few days for him to serve in prison. Nazi's secretary, Lombardo, who also was on trial before the senate was acquitted for lack of evidence.

The former minister was greatly distressed at the verdict and exclaimed: "Even after condemnation, I feel like an honest man."

Strong forces of police and soldiers guarded the building where the senators deliberated, armed guards being placed at all entrances and even on the roof. No one was allowed to enter or leave the building until the court had reached its decision. On the au-

CHAPTER III.

BILLY EDWARDS came on deck with a line of irritation right, angling the furrows between his eyes.

"Go ahead," the quarter deck bade him, seeing him advance with information.

"The captain won't believe me," blurted out Edwards.

"Is it as bad as that?" asked Barnett, smiling.

"It certainly is," replied the younger man seriously. "I don't know that I blame him. I'd hardly believe it myself if I didn't."

"Oh, go on! Out with it! Give us the facts. Never mind your credibility."

"The facts are that there lies the laughing Lass a little weather-bitten, but sound as a dollar, and not a living being aboard of her. Her boats are all there. Everything is in good condition, though none too orderly. Pitcher half full of fresh water in the tank. Sails all O. K. Ashes of the galley fire still warm. I tell you, gentlemen, that ship hasn't been deserted more than a couple of days at the outside."

"Are you sure all the boats are there?" asked Ives.

"Dory, dingy and two surfboats. Isn't that enough?"

"Plenty."

"Been over her, inside and out. No sign of collision. No leak. No anything, except that the sturdiest side is blistered a bit. No evidence of fire anywhere else. I tell you," said Billy Edwards pathetically, "it's given me a headache."

"Perhaps it's one of those cases of panic that Forsythe spoke of the other night," said Ives. "The crew got frightened at something and ran away, with the devil after them."

"But crews don't just stop out and run around the corner and hide when they're scared," objected Barnett.

"That's true, too," assented Ives.

"Well, perhaps that volcanic eruption jarred them so that they jumped for it."

"Pretty wild theory, that," said Edwards.

"No wilder than the facts, as you give them," was the retort.

"That's so," admitted the ensign gloomily.

"But how about pestilence?" suggested Barnett.

"Maybe they died fast, and the last survivors, after the bodies of the rest were overboard, got delicious and jumped after them."

"Not if the galley fire was hot," said Dr. Trondren briefly. "No; pestilence doesn't work that way."

"Did you look at the wheel, Billy?" asked Ives.

"Did I? There's another thing. Wheel's all right, but compass is no good at all. It's regularly bewitched."

"What about the log, then?"

"Couldn't find it anywhere. Hunted high, low, juck and the gams; everywhere except in the big brass bound chest I found in the captain's cabin. Couldn't break into that."

"Dr. Schermhorst's chest?" exclaimed Barnett. "Then he was aboard."

"Well, he isn't aboard now," said the ensign grimly. "Not in the flesh. And that's all," he added suddenly.

"No, it isn't all," said Barnett gently. "There's something else. Captain's orders."

"Oh, no. Captain Parkinson doesn't take enough stock in my report to tell me to withhold anything," said Edwards, with a trace of bitterness in his voice. "It's nothing that I believe myself, anyhow."

"Give us a chance to believe it," said Ives.

"Well," said the ensign hesitantly, "there's a sort of atmosphere about that schooner that's almost uncanny."

"Oh, you had the shudders before you were ordered to board," bantered Ives.

"I know it. I'd have thought it was one of those fool presentiments if I were the only one to feel it. But the men were affected too. They kept together, like frightened sheep. And I heard one say to another, 'Hey, honey, d'you feel like some one was a-buzzin' your nerves like a fiddle string?'"

"Now," demanded Edwards plaintively, "what right has a jackie to have nerves?"

"That's strange enough about the compass," said Barnett slowly. "Ours is all right again. The schooner must have been so near the electric disturbance that her instruments were permanently deranged."

"That would lend weight to the yel-cable theory," said Carter.

"No the captain didn't take kindly to your gook-see?" questioned Ives of Edwards.

"As good as told me I'd missed the point of the thing," said the ensign, frowning. "Perhaps he can make more of it himself. At any rate he's going to try. Here he is now."

"Dr. Trondren," said the captain, appearing. "You will please to go with me to the schooner."

"Yes, sir," said the surgeon, rising from his chair with such alacrity as to draw from Ives the sardonic comment:

"Why, I actually believe old Trondren is excited."

For two hours after the departure of the captain and Trondren there were dull times on the quarter deck of the Wolverine. Then the surgeon came back to them.

"Billy was right," he said.

"But he didn't tell us anything," cried Ives. "He didn't clear up the mystery."

"That's what," said Trondren. "One thing Billy said," he added, waxing unusually profuse for him, "was truer than maybe he knew."

"Thanks," murmured the ensign. "What was that?"

"You said 'Not a living being aboard.' Exact words, hey?"

"Well, what of it?" exclaimed the ensign excitedly. "You don't mean you found dead?"

"Keep your temperature down, my boy. No. You were exactly right. Not a living being aboard."

"Thanks for nothing," retorted the ensign.

"Neither human nor other," pursued Trondren.

"What?"

"Food scattered around the galley. Crumbs on the mess table. Iver see a wooden ship without cockroaches?"

"Cockroaches?"

"No, sir. Not a living being aboard."

"Well, what of it?" exclaimed the ensign excitedly. "You don't mean you found dead?"

U.S. COMPARED WITH OTHER COUNTRIES IN POPULATION PER SQ. MILE.

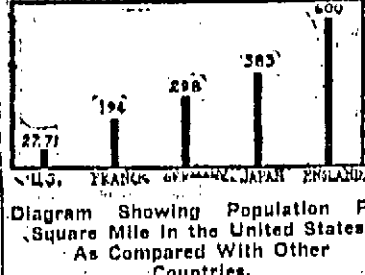

Diagram Showing Growth of the United States in Population As Compared With the Area in Square Miles Since 1880.

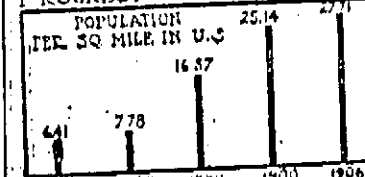

Diagram Showing Growth of the United States in Population As Compared With the Area in Square Miles Since 1880.

Progress is the watchword of the United States, but we seldom take time to inventory the not results. A few figures are interesting to show just how much we have gained.

First of all we have gained in population and area. In 1790 the United States included 82,844 square miles and had a population of 3,909,827 persons. In 1900 we had an estimated population of 81,151,009 and an area of 3,628,789 square miles. The first diagram above shows clearly the increase in population per square mile since 1880.

In order that we may not get the idea from this increase in population per square mile that the United States is overcrowded, a second diagram is given showing the population per square mile in 1900 of the United States, as compared with other world powers. From this it is clear there is still room in the United States for all the better class of immigrants who come to our shores.

The public debt per capita in the United States has been steadily decreasing since 1880, when it would have required $38.27 from each man, woman and child to clear the debt of Uncle Sam's books. Now there is only $11.16 in public debt against each person. At this time of controversy between the "free traders" and "protectionists" it is interesting to know just what the import and export business of the United States is during the year. Last year the total imports amounted to $14.42 for each person, and the exports to $20.11.

Railroads show a decided increase each year. In 1880 there were 32,257 miles of railroad operated in the United States. In 1900 there were 104,252 miles. In 1907 there were 128,738 miles. The number of freight cars has increased from 15,185 in 1880, to 1,707,067 cars in 1907. In 1880 the total revenue derived from the postoffice department was $380,801. In 1880 this had increased to $3,215,479, while in 1907 it was $167,932,783. In 1850 there were 2,524 newspapers published in the United States. In 1906 a careful estimate shows there were 22,326.

The deposits and number of depositors in our savings banks give a conservative key to the increased prosperity in the United States. In 1850 there were 251,354 depositors in our savings banks with a total deposit of $43,431,130. Last year there were 8,027,192 depositors with $3,209,544,501 to their credit. Manufactured products and farm valuations show marked increase, especially during the last few years.

LION WATCHING POWERS' MOVES

BRITISH DEFENSE ESTIMATES ADD $3,000,000.

ADMIRALTY TELLS CAUSE

Program of England Is Molded Upon the Action of Other Nations—Tweedmouth in an Explanation.

London, Feb. 25.—The estimates for the British defense forces for the current year, which were issued Monday, will disappoint the peace party, for, instead of showing a reduction, as they had hoped, the combined estimates for the army and navy show an increase of $3,000,000, without apparently any prospect of considerable diminution in the future.

Lord Tweedmouth, first lord of the admiralty, explains outright that the future program of Great Britain will depend upon whether foreign powers increase their naval forces, since the government has every intention of maintaining the standard of the British navy, which hitherto has been deemed necessary for the safeguarding of national and imperial interests.

Thinks Reduction Impossible. The war secretary, Mr. Haldane, says in a similar statement regarding the army: "Looking to the future I am convinced that it is impossible to make further diminutions in the army expenditures on a considerable scale, unless we first of all reduce the number of troops serving abroad. Garrisoning abroad," he adds, "will be reduced whenever that can safely be done, but if reductions in the regular army are carried too far, demand will ultimately have to be made on the citizen forces such as hitherto has never been contemplated." The army estimates for 1908-09 total $154,185,120, and the war secretary estimates for a total of 185,000 men, in the home and colonial establishments, irrespective of India, a decrease of 5,000 men from last year. The navy estimates total $181,897,500, and provide for exactly the same number of officers and men as last year.

Plan for Only One Vessel. The agitation for economy has had some effect on the shipbuilding program which contemplates only one improved warship of the Dreadnaught type instead of the three expected. The government proposes to build one large armored cruiser, six fast protected cruisers, 10 torpedo boat destroyers and some submarines. The number of the last-mentioned vessels is not given, but they are estimated to cost $2,500,000. In an explanatory statement Lord Tweedmouth, first lord of the admiralty, points out that an increase in expenditure is inevitable, but by the strictest economy he was able to confine it to $4,500,000. On April 1 next the British navy will have under construction seven battleships, four armored cruisers, one unarmored cruiser, ten torpedo boat destroyers, 20 torpedo boats and eight submarines.

Decrease Still Possible. Lord Tweedmouth shows how a gradual and continuous diminution in the amount required for new construction, which was initiated in 1905 when it reached a maximum of $57,500,000, was still possible, the amount now being $37,725,000, as compared with $40,500,000 last year. He announces the definite intention to proceed with the construction of a naval base at Rosyth, Scotland, which, besides having a basin capable of accommodating 22 warships, will include a depot for submarines and destroyers. The whole work, it is estimated, will take a decade in building and will cost $16,250,000. The naval estimates provide for exactly the same number of officers and men as last year.

THIRTY INJURED IN WRECK. Special Train Derailed at Orville, Tex., Late at Night. San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 25.—Late Monday night the special train bearing the Charles Gato, Mexican touring party, was derailed at Orville, 12 miles north of Laredo. Thirty people are reported injured. According to the dispatch received here, every car in the train left the track and was thrown into the ditch. The train consisted of nine cars, five of which were sleepers. Most of the passengers were from Toledo, O., and Chicago, but a number of San Antonio people were on board the train. A special train was sent from Laredo with doctors and nurses and another from San Antonio. Late advice says that the wreck was due to a broken axle on the engine. None of the passengers were killed.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 25.—The Reineco Motor company of this city Monday went into the hands of a receiver, Judge Murphy of the Wayne county circuit court appointed Victor Carney receiver, and fixed his bond at $25,000. The receiver's duty was aimed to avoid impending foreclosure proceedings involving an issue of bonds amounting to $130,000.

President Pardo's Cable Answered by National Executive—Torpedo Fleet Heard from.

Washington, Feb. 25.—A congratulatory telegram to President Roosevelt was received Monday from Jose Pardo, president of Peru, and replied to by the president.

President Pardo says: "I have just visited the flagship Connecticut and reviewed the whole squadron commanded by Admiral Evans, and I have the satisfaction of expressing to your excellency my admiration for the invincible condition of all the ships and for the enthusiasm and energy of the crews. The squadron now visiting us worthily represents the power and greatness of the United States and its men are given a fraternal reception at Peru."

The president replied: "I am much pleased to receive your telegram and I heartily appreciate your laudatory comments regarding the American fleet. The enthusiastic welcome and friendly demonstration at Callao have gratified and touched the American people, who have ever had for Peruvians sentiments of sincere esteem. Accept the assurances of the highest consideration and warm regards from me and from my people."

Lima, Feb. 25.—After four days the battleships of the American navy still are as strong an attraction to Peruvians as on the morning of their arrival. Crowds continue to visit the ships where they are given every facility for a thorough inspection of the great fighting machines. There were 30,000 visitors in Callao.

Talcahuano, Chile, Feb. 25.—The officers of the American torpedo boat fleet, which has been here since February 15, have been treated with marked attention by the Peruvian authorities. The torpedo boats leave here Tuesday for Callao, where they probably will arrive March 1.

TRY TO BREAK DEFENSE.

Strenuous Efforts Made at Pennsylvania State Capitol Hearing.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 25.—Strenuous efforts to break down the defense in the trial of the state capital conspiracy suit were made by the commonwealth in the cross-examination Monday of ex-Auditor General Snyder, the first of the defendants to be called as a witness in his own behalf. Snyder declared that he did not know at the time the $5,500,000 contract for furnishing the capitol was awarded to John H. Sanderson, one of the defendants, that the schedule did not specify the quantity of the articles to be furnished. Snyder testified that he made no effort to ascertain that and that he trusted to Architect Huston. It was brought out in the cross-examination that Sanderson was the only bidder who filed a bond of $100,000 with his bid and that nothing was said in the schedule upon which the bids were received about this bond requirement.

From Stenograph Copyright by Underwood & Underwood, New York. This remarkable photograph shows the Pantheon of kings and queens at St. Vincent's monastery in Lisbon, the capital of Portugal. Here the remains of King Carlos and his son, Prince Luis, have been interred. The photograph is a most interesting exhibit. On the left are apparent a long line of royal caskets which are enshrined in the royal robes of the monarch who wore them while in life, and surrounding each casket is the crown which pressed the royal brow while living. The high tomb in the center is that of Luis I., father of the late King Carlos. In this royal Pantheon the murdered Carlos and his murdered son now rest.

Why The Tubular Is The Nearest Approach to Separator Perfection

Stupor of Build in Bowl and Gear
Secure Best Efficiency in Service,
Utmost Ease in Operation and Long
Life Without Repair bills.

Here are the conditions which are included in the Tubular construction of cream separators. Thoroughly clean separating. Convenience in operation. Least expense for oil and repairs. Quick and easy cleaning.

In these four conditions the Tubular is in a class alone—superior to all other separators.

The lower wheel touches the oil in the bottom of the case, and throws a spray over all parts as well as the ball bearings supporting the bowl and thus keeps all wearing parts perfectly lubricated.

There is an arrangement between the crank shaft and the gear where by the handle ceases turning as soon as the operator releases his grip.

The bowl is supported by a ball bearing from which the spindle hangs. This is the only bearing Tubular bowls have. It enables the bowl to turn in a perfectly balanced position. There is no swaying or vibration.

The Tubular is the only separator having the bottom-fed bowl—all others are fed from the top. The advantages gained by the bottom-fed bowl are the widest supply can and allowing the bowl to be suspended from its spindle and permitting a small diameter to the bowl. The milk passes but once through the bowl—from bottom to top; a valuable difference from other bowls, in which the milk is poured in, strikes the bottom and must re-start in the skimming process.

The small diameter of the Tubular bowl results in the cleanest skimming and the gentlest discharge of cream in an unwhipped, unburned condition.

The Tubular bowl, unlike any other separator bowl, is perfectly smooth and free from complications. There is but one small piece, which is smooth and shaped like a napkin ring, in the Tubular bowl—no pins, discs, columns, cones, leaves or other parts which churn and whip the milk and cream and are hard and tedious to clean, soon rust or wear and cause their bowls to get out of balance.

NEW BODY FOR HUGE SHIPS LIKE THE LUSITANIA AND MAURETANIA.

Owing to the great sizes and weight of the Lusitania and her sister ship the Mauretania, it has been found necessary to design special moorings for their accommodation in the River Mersey at Liverpool.

The buoy is 16 feet in diameter over the plating by 11 feet deep and is constructed of Siemens-Martin mild steel, having an ultimate tensile strength of 28 tons per square inch. The illustration gives a very good idea of its size as it lay in the maker's yard, ready to be put into service. The plates are three inches thick, and rivets are 1 1/2 inches in diameter.
